Notes

1. Data were not normalized for organic carbon.
2. Vertical scale is in centimeters (cm). Vertical scale is exaggerated by a factor of approximately 5,000.
3. Bed interval of 0-8 cm is shown separated from the remainder of the vertical profile.
4. View is from the Pacific Ocean towards the shoreline.
5. The profile is a flattened rendition of the 60-meter (m) isobath. The concentration isopleths may appear disjointed and irregular at bends in the actual 60-m isobath. (Bends appear as folds).
6. Edges of the modeled area are shown on Figure 2-1.
